

Cross-Border Data Protection Network

International Conference

Towards a new UK data protection model? Cross-border cooperation challenges after Brexit

Dublin City University & on Zoom, 7-8 April 2022

Research Partners

Institutional Partners

Cross-Border Data Protection Network

Programme

Thursday 7th April, 2022 - Zoom Registration Link

Panel 1 - Towards a new UK data protection model?

15.00-15.05	Welcome and Introduction Cross-DPN Team
15.05-15.20	Post-Brexit UK data protection – staying the course or charting a new one? Dr Karen Mc Cullagh, University of East Anglia
15.20-15.35	Brexit and data protection law – A missed opportunity for the UK Government? Dr Henry Pearce, Portsmouth Law School
15.35-15.50	Beyond data protection: The effects of other technology law reforms on data protection and commercial data transfers Dr Edina Harbinja, Aston University
15.50-16.20	Q&As
16.20-16.40	Coffee and Tea

Panel 2 - Data Sovereignty Tensions

16.40-16.45	Welcome and Introduction
16.45-17.00	Unlocking the power of data without undermining the GDPR: myth or reality? Prof Sophie Stalla-Bourdillon, Southampton Law School
17.00-17.15	The Brussels Effect: Regulatory Standard-Setting and Constitutional Conflicts in Post-Brexit Privacy Law Dr Roisin A Costello, DCU School of Law and Government
17.15-17.30	Brexit and the risks of data sovereigntism Dr Edoardo Celeste, DCU School of Law and Government
17.30-18.00	Q&As

Cross-Border Data Protection Network

Friday 8th April, 2022 - Zoom Registration Link

Panel 3 - Law enforcement and the delicate equilibrium of the UK adequacy decision

09.30-09.35	Welcome and Introduction Prof Federico Fabbrini, Director of the Brexit Institute
09.35-09.50	Counter-terrorism, information sharing and law enforcement cooperation post Brexit Dr Christine Andreeva, Metropolitan University Prague
09.50-10.05	An (in)adequate data protection regime after Brexit? Assessing the future of EU-UK data transfers in the context of UK national security laws Dr Maria Tzanou and Dr Sotirios Santatzoglou, Keele University
10.05-10.20	'Serious and Systemic'? An analysis of the development and use of live facial recognition in the UK and its impact on adequacy Dr Allison M Holmes, Kent Law School
10.20-10.50	Q&As
10.50-11.10	Coffee and Tea

Panel 4 - Artificial intelligence and cross-border cooperation challenges post-Brexit

11.10-11.15	Welcome and Introduction
11.15-11.30	Regulating AI: a comparative analysis of EU and UK policy responses Prof Lilian Mitrou, University of the Aegean-Greece
11.30-11.45	The right to a human decision after Brexit: How divergence in human-machine relationship can impact transnational cooperation Dr Napoleon Xanthoulis, Southampton Law School
11.45-12.00	Towards a successful cross-border regulatory cooperation Dr Peter Hustinx, Information Commissioner's Office
12.00-12.30	Q&As